

The Medico-Legal Society of Toronto Award

Nomination Form

The Medico-Legal Society of Toronto Award was created to recognize the outstanding contributions made by members of the Medical, Legal or Scientific community. Members of the Medico-Legal Society are invited to nominate a suitable candidate for the award.

PART I

Criteria:

The Medico-Legal Society Award is the highest expression of esteem which the Society can convey and is intended to honour those members of the Medical, Legal or Scientific community who have made a significant contribution to their profession as well as either the Society or the community at large and whose contributions are consistent with the values of the Society.

Each year the Society alternates between the legal and medical professions, this year we are seeking suitable candidates from the medical field.

Members of the Medico-Legal Society of Toronto are invited to nominate a person to receive this award. No more than one candidate is eligible to receive the award in any fiscal year for the Society. There is no obligation or requirement for the Society to make an award in any fiscal year. If a suitable candidate is identified, the Executive Committee will make a recommendation to Council who may, at their sole discretion, make a final decision by a majority vote as to whether an award will be given in that fiscal year and if so who the recipient of the award will be.

Any award will be presented at the Annual Dinner of the Society. The award shall be a plaque or other appropriate award approved by Council of the Society.

Nominations must be received in the MLST office no later than March 15th at 5:00pm
